OHIO ORDERED TO REDUCE CWA
FORCES BY 46,000

Federal Administrator's
Ruling Brings Total
Down to 200,000

STATE WORKS OUT
COUNTY QUOTAS

CWA Chief Also Says

Approved by U. S.

BULLETIN
Columbiana county's quota was reduced 346 men, E. M.
Lowry, county CWA director, was notified by state authorities in a telegram received at Lisbon this afternoon.

The county's quota, formerly 3,320 men, has been slashed to 2,974 employees, Lowry announced.

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 19.—An immediate reduction of 46,000 in the number of CWA workers in Ohio was ordered today by Harry L. Hopkins, federal civil works administrator.

The cut will bring the total of workers down to 200,000 throughout the state.

Hopkins ordered the reduction to be made at once and Adm. Gen.
Frank D. Henderson and Maj. E. O.
Brought, chairman and director, respectively, of the state CWA, went into a huddle to work out the reduction quotas for various counties. Henderson said it is not likely the quotas will be available for a day or two.

Follows Cut In Hours
The order to reduce the Ohio CWA force by 46,000 comes on top of a previous order to cut from 30 hours a week to 24 the maximum hours CWA workers may be employed in cities of more than 2,500, and to 15 hours the maximum weekly employment period for workers in smaller communities.

The Hopkins order furthermore specified that all materials to be used on CWA projects must be approved by the federal administration in Washington.

Money Dwindling,
CWA Slows Up

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—A sudden "dry" order on the parcelling out of 500,000 new jobs, coupled with a drastic slash in all working weeks, was the answer of the civil works administration today to its fast dwindling money supply.

Official estimates were that about 4,000,000 CWA workers in every section of the United States would draw reduced pay envelopes.
All civil works job-giving throughout the country, where many applications for work were still being filled, was called to a halt. The only exception made was for replacing workers who had quit and been paid off.

At least one protest against the orders dispatched from CWA headquarters here was placed on file almost as soon as the move became known. The executive committee of the United States conference of mayors said in a statement:

"We have now come back to the

MAN IS INJURED
IN UNITY FIGHT

Audrey Justison, 35, Sebring, Brought To City Hospital

Reported by East Palestine
police to have been injured in a fight at Unity, Audrey Justison, 35, Sebring is in the Salem City hospital today suffering from lacerations and bruises.

Arthur Webber of Unity, charged by Justison with having attacked him during a party at Webber's home, is being held by East Palestine and Unity township authorities for questioning.

Justison, recently married at Sebring, is reported by East Palestine police to have driven to Unity Wednesday night to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Baker.
Finding no one there, Justison is said to have gone to the Webber home where a party was being held.
Justison, police reported, became involved in an argument with the host, and, shortly after midnight, authorities related, they clashed in a fist fight. Webber is later said to have grabbed a chair and knocked Justison to the floor by striking him over the head after which the two began hurling dishes and glassware at each other.

Early reports also charged Webber with having stabbed Justison but authorities today said that they had found no stab wounds on the man.

Friends picked him up as he was walking in a dazed condition near the Webber home and he was taken to the Baker residence, police said.
A physician was summoned at 3 a.
m. and he ordered the man's removal to the Salem hospital.

Salem hospital attaches today reported his condition as good.

Clashes Feared In
N. Orleans Election

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 19.—The threat of armed force in the voters registration row over next Tuesday's municipal primary hung over New Orleans today.

An undetermined number of national guardsmen slept last night in Jackson barracks, military headquarters, after Gov. O. K. Allen had placed the records of all state departments in New Orleans, except the registration office under the control of Adjutant General Ray H. Fleming.

Gov. Allen said he was acting to preserve law and order.

The governor threatened to arrest Mayor T. Semmes Walmesley if the voters attempt a raid on any other state office as was done early last Tuesday morning on the registration office.

KANSAS BREAK

2 Are Members of Gang
In Sensational Memorial Day Break

(By Associated Press)
LANSHING, Kan., Jan. 19.—Seven convicts, including Bob (Big Boy) Brady and Jim Clark, who participated in the sensational break last Memorial day escaped from the Kansas penitentiary here today under the fire of guards and were being hunted by national guardsmen, and scores of heavily armed civilian officers.

The men scaled the south wall of the prison with an improvised ladder shortly before 7 a. m. After overpowering Clyde Deer a guard in the cell block where they were working Deer was unharmed.

Two guards on the wall fired on the fleeing prisoners in the darkness.

Unarmed Flee on Foot
The fugitives were unarmed and fled on foot toward the wooded country along the Missouri river.

Prison guards peace officers of Leavenworth and other nearby cities and federal agents took up the man hunt.

Milton R. McLean, adjutant general of the Kansas national guard, ordered out batteries of artillery at Fort Scott and Iowa and troops of cavalry from Pleasanton and Colfeyville to guard against the convicts gaining outlaw retreats in Oklahoma.

In addition to Brady and Clark,
those who escaped were:
Charles Clifton McArthur, 29, serving 10 to 15 years for second degree burglary. He once served part of a life sentence for murder in Oklahoma.

Fred Cody, 33, serving 10 to 30 years for bank robbery; Tommie McMahon, 28, serving 20 to 42 years for first degree robbery; Frank Delmar, 30, 26 years for second degree murder, and Benjamin Young, 19,
two to four years for jail break.

Brady and Clark were captured last fall near Tucuman, N. M., and were returned to the penitentiary.

Strengthen Guard
On Robber Suspect
In Mae West Trial

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 19.—Threats of violence brought orders to strengthen the cordon of guards today in the court room where the asserted robber of Mae West is on trial.

Superior Judge Harry Sewell regarded the anonymous telephone warnings he received yesterday lightly, but authorities who already had assigned four personal guards to the actress, took no chances.

Three times, district attorney's investigators said, the jurist was told violence might occur in his court room unless he took "the easiest way out"—instructing the jury to acquit Edward Friedman of robbing the blonde star 15 months ago.

Nevertheless Judge Sewell scorned an offer of a bodyguard. He said he thought the phone calls came from "cranks."

The degree of police apprehension was indicated when detectives halted a curious man who was trying to get a close-up view of Miss West. Officers thought he had been shadowing the actress and wanted to know why.

Miss West herself took things comfortably in a room adjoining the scene of the trial.

Wallace Funeral
To Be Held Sunday

LISBON, Jan. 20.—The funeral service for Cecil Wallace, 54, fifth CWA worker in this county to die as a result of an accident, will be held at the home, Harrison st. here at 2:30 p. m. Sunday, with the Rev.
F. C. Lake of the Christian church and Rev. A. C. Westphal of the Salem Baptist church in charge.

Concordia lodge, Odd Fellows, of which Wallace was a member of long standing will also conduct a service.

Curtis Draws Fine
On Liquor Charge

LEWISBURG, Pa., Jan. 19.— Prosecuted under the new federal liquor tax laws, Edward Curtis, Canton, Ohio, pleaded guilty yesterday in federal court to defrauding
the government of tax on liquor.

He was sentenced to serve one year and one day and was fined $250.

Curtis was arrested near Grant-ville, after his automobile had been wrecked and agents testified liquor was found in the car.

Havana Riots As Cuban Presidents Are Reshuffled

An armored tank and a body of deployed troops patrol the streets of Havana during unrest attending upon the record switch of Presidents. The resignation of President Grau, appointment of Carlos succession that factions did not have time to start a riot. All parties are said to back Mendieta.

LEGAL LIQUOR
ON SALE TODAY

Public Schools, At Same Time, Observe Temperance Day

(By Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, Jan. 19.—Ohioans bought liquor legally by the glass today in the seclusion of a score of hotel dining rooms, restaurants and clubs fortunate enough to obtain permits effective today.

The return of drinking on the day annual temperance sessions were held in Ohio's public schools was marked by a few celebrations.

The scarcity of places authorized today to sell by the glass at tables was a major reason.

Although the liquor control board has approved more than 100 permits for sale of wine and whisky, many will not be effective until next week.

Hotels Are Ready
Leading hotels in Cincinnati opened gaudy bars. Cleveland hotels refurbished drinking rooms in a riot of color to make ready for cocktail hour parties. Columbus hotels had portable bars ready to wheel around to tables on the heels of the waiter with the wine and whisky lists.

As men and women sat down quietly to wine and dine, school children sat in their straight-backed seats all over Ohio to listen to temperance lectures.

In the lower grades, the history of the temperance movement was traced. In the high schools the provisions of Ohio's new liquor control act were explained.

Meanwhile Ohioans who preferred 32 to harder liquors or more potent beer, developed somewhat of a "beer headache, with brewers opposing the mixing of 32 beer and liquor and distributors fighting for the right to sell both.

The distributors took their fight to the supreme court in a manda-mus suit filed by Joseph R.
Twibles Sons Co. of Cincinnati.
The suit demanded the State Phar-

Sentences Imposed
On Six Americans

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—The sentencing of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton
B. Lockwood and two other Americans to six months and a day in a Spanish jail surprised state department officials who believed the military auditor who reviewed the case would dismiss the charges.

Five Americans were arrested at Palma, Mallorca, last year after an altercation in a hotel and charged with assaulting a civil guard. Mrs.
Lockwood and the others were kept in jail for several weeks before they were released on bail.

Palma officials held the offense was against military law and must be tried by a military court.

Large Crowd Sees
Final Performance
of Episcopal Play

A large audience witnessed the closing performance of the musical comedy, "Ditty Whorl" sponsored by the Episcopal church Guild, at the High school auditorium Thursday night.

Unusually pleasing in the production were dances and other specialties by members of the Betty Lee dance studio while interesting also was the plot upon which the play was based.

Principal roles were carried by Chester Gibbons, Rena Kasmirsky,
John T. Burns, Betty Long, Charles
Snyder, Mary Haldeman, Clarence
Carrie, Mrs. Mary Skarpen, Ralph Hanney, Catherine Ladd, Rachel Cope, William Sturgeon and Donald McDonald.

A song and dance by young
Jerry Kaufman, sketches by Bobbie Lou Webber, Elaine McGhee and Lou Jean McNeelan and an acrobatic dance by Eldon Gibbons were among the principal features in the specialties. Baby Patricia Putnam was applauded as the "flower girl"
during the wedding procession which closed the first act.

The production was also given Wednesday night before many spectators.

Pork Distributed
To Needy Families

LISBON, Jan. 19.—Salt pork will be distributed from the Central fire station here today and Saturday to families on relief lists in the East Liverpool and Liverpool township district. It was announced today at the office of E. M. Lowry, Columbiana county CWA director.

Similar distribution will be made at the Kroger store, State st. Salem, and for St. Clair township from the IGA store at Stop 55. At East Palestine, the distribution is in charge of Henry Labor, and at Wellsville the distribution will be made from the former community store.

In the rural communities the distribution will be in charge of the township trustees. Over 25,000 pounds of this community is to be distributed.

Lisbon CWA Offices
To Be Moved Soon

LISBON, Jan. 19.—Three CWA divisions now operating in No. 2 common pleas court here will be moved from that location to the Rogers building, South Market st., within 70 days. The divisions concerned are the claim and purchasing sections and also the clerical force under Disbursing Agent J.
Howard Sinclair.

Following the removal of these departments, time keepers and other clerical divisions quartered in the court house hallways and law library will be relocated in No. 2 court room.

The general office and forces under E. M. Lowry, county CWA director, will not be disturbed under the new setup.

The W. J. Binsley clothing store, for years located at West Lincoln

GIRLS SCHOOL
WORK OUTLINED

Social Investigator Addresses Three Clubs
At Joint Meet

Mrs. Paye B. Burns, social investigator for the Girls Industrial school near Delaware, Ohio, portrayed that institution as a training school for problem girls in an address before a joint meeting of Rotary, Kiwanis and Quota clubs Thursday noon at the Memorial building.

In concluding Mrs. Burns made a plea that these delinquent wards of the state, upon their parole to society, should be encouraged, and not rejected.

Wards Are Costly
Before introducing the speaker,
Probate Judge Homer W. Hammond called attention to the fact that wards in the various state institutions cost this county $135,000, or 65 percent of the general fund, last year.

Delinquent girls were defined by Mrs. Burns as those who are sick morally, those whom society has failed to educate properly. The Girls Industrial school is a home training school for such girls. It aims to offer resourceful, individual treatment through social, medical, psychiatric and religious measures; to rehabilitate girls so they may become socially adjusted, develop into good citizens. Its purpose is to train each girl in principles of right thinking and upright, honest, clean living.

Through Juvenile Court Every girl going to the state industrial school is committed through a juvenile court. She must be over 10 and under 18. While a girl could by law be held until she is 21, the average length of stay is 13 or 14 months.

Girls are kept in cottages housing 25 or 30. They are given medical care, their health built up, they attend grade and high school and are given training in religious, music and vocational work. About 400 girls are in the school at present, their care there costing the state
about $400 each a year.

Rev. G. D. Kelster presided over the joint meeting of clubs.

ACCEPTS JOB AT $1
YEARLY TO BACK UP
ECONOMY PROGRAM

Declares Democratic Party Campaigned On This Platform, and, In Meantime, Has Failed to Support Mayor Phillips

Believing that Mayor Norman Phillips' economy program should be supported wholeheartedly, inasmuch as the city needs every dollar possible for normal operation, Homer M. Silver, president of the Quaker City Foundry, today accepted an appointment as safety director and will work for $1 a year.

In other words, the appointee will draw the full salary of $360 annually but will return $359 to the city treasury.

Silver will succeed John R. Kerr, who has served for the last four years.

$800 Is Saved
By Delaying
Water Main

Mayor Norman Phillips Explains Action Hit
By Council

One of two sums—$899 and $1,600
—was available to the city from CWA money to aid in the laying of North Ellsworth ave water main,
according to Mayor Norman Phillips, and he chose to take the $1,- 600.

For that reason, work has been delayed on this CWA project, the mayor pointed out today in explanation of his stand in face of criticism from city council Tuesday night.

To be more accurate, it should be said that preliminary steps in the project have been delayed, because work has not started and even though the project were ready immediately, it is doubtful whether the city can get action for several weeks anyway because men won't be available until, and if, an additional quota is ordered or one more projects is finished to permit the transfer of workers to the water main job.

The water main project was submitted to the state for approval at an estimated cost of approximately $8,000. When it was submitted, Mayor Phillips pointed out, the CWA fund made 10 per cent available for the purchase of materials.

The CWA provides all the labor,
under this arrangement, in addition to a portion of the materials cost. Both the labor and materials were estimated at slightly less than $8,000, of which about half is to be paid to labor. This leaves half, then, to materials. Under the 10 per cent arrangement (the CWA taking 10 per cent of the total cost, $8,000)
there would be available $800 to apply on the $4,000 for materials, leaving $3,200 to be paid by the city.

However, after submitting the estimate for CWA approval, the CWA materials percentage was raised to 20. Mayor Phillips pointed out.

Under this arrangement, 20 per cent of $8,000 would provide $1,600 for materials cost. This sum, deducted from the $4,000 materials estimate, would leave $2,400 instead of $3,200, as the city's share, a saving of $800.

Other taxing districts of the county are taking advantage of the 20 per cent fund and the mayor said he felt that with municipal funds as scarce as they are, it would be unwise not to take advantage of the opportunity.

Consequently, steps are being taken to resubmit the project immediately.

Mayor Phillips also explained that he hoped it would be possible, sometime in the future, when more money is available, to loop the main in order to do away with the dead end.

LASTING BENEFITS

It is conceded in good nature that much of the work being done by the civil works administration is utterly foolish and a waste of energy. But Americans hold fondly to the belief that a man should work before eating. Any work is better than a dole.

There is one type of work that has interested many constructive critics of CWA—a type that seems to come closer to filling the bill than almost any work being done by its tens of thousands of workers. That is elimination of grade crossings, a program that has been under consideration for many years.

There can be no argument over the desirability of eliminating grade crossings. Neither can there be any argument over the benefits to labor and industry which would accompany the undertaking. It is estimated that the expenditure for direct labor on such projects is 35 per cent, not including labor's benefit in industries that would be kept busy supplying materials.

The only question seems to be, therefore: Is elimination of grade crossings a proper outlet for CWA funds? Whatever technicalities of depression might seem to prove or disprove, it is a fact that the national administration caused to be included in one section of the national industrial recovery act authorization to use public money "to pay all or any part of the cost of surveys, plans, and of highway and bridge construction, including the elimination of hazards to highway traffic such as the separation of grades at crossings."

To the objection that so extensive a program could not be initiated without months of delay, the railroads have a ready answer. They have been studying the problem for many years. Incidental to their study they have prepared comprehensive plans, which could be made available on short notice. It may be depended upon that railroads would do everything within their power to facilitate operation of crossing elimination program.

Would it be unduly favorable to their interests? The question can be given opposite answers with equal truthfulness, all depending on the answer's viewpoint. Sympathizers with railroad management point out, however, that it is not railroads but motor traffic which makes it necessary to face the problem of grade crossings. It is the public's responsibility to find an answer with the railroads' help.

The CWA and its thousands of workers who must be kept busy present a likely solution.

MALEVOLENT DESPOTS

American workmen, jealous of their traditional rights and struggling to secure the implied advantages of their status under the national recovery act, can look to Germany for a significant contrast.

Chancellor Hitler has announced that henceforth unquestioning obedience to his superior will be the fundamental rule of the German laboring man. He will be in the same position as a private in an army.

Theoretically, the superior officer will be motivated in thought and action by concern for his subordinates. He will not be a representative of management, but the executive agent of the workers under his control. So much for theory. It cannot change this important fact: the superior will be responsible, not to labor, but to the government.

That government is dedicated to a counter-revolutionary policy, which means that it intends to preserve the power of the existing system rather than to what may appear to be the revolutionary desires of its people.

By regimenting labor in a military plan it effectively paralyzes the operation of change among the masses.

This is the way the scheme is expected, to work. Because of the tremendous power of the Nazi government this is the way it probably will work for a time. While it continues to play the role of benevolent despot, its control will be tolerated.

But experience warns that no system of control which makes a series of workmen can escape the perils of corruption at the top and resentment at the bottom.

Some parts of the Nazi efforts to stabilize Germany have been condoned on the grounds that they were anti-communistic. Even France must concede that Germany stands as a bulwark of defense against these forces in Europe which are attacking capitalism. But when recourse is had to malevolent despotism, forbidding labor to assert itself except through the agents of the despots, the attempt to save capitalism seems less worthy than its opposition. Germany has taken a step which shows clearly how far it has departed from the ideal of free government.

A Disease of Civilization

MANY PERSONS confuse a condition called "irritable colon" with a common ailment known as "mucous colitis." Though the symptoms of these disturbances are similar, the treatment is different. It can readily be understood that speedy cure is not to be expected when the correct treatment is not being used.

To the numbers of persons who talk about having it, one would believe that everybody is afflicted with colitis.

Irritable colon is not as serious as colitis. It differs from it in that there is no marked inflammation or organic change of the colon.

It is a disease of modern civilization most common among those who lead strenuous and poorly regulated lives. It is probable that our forefathers did not suffer from this affliction, certainly not as we do. It is often the result of overtaxed nerves, fatigue, anxiety, fear, worry and other emotional disturbances.

The trouble is frequently traced to some laxation within the body or as a reflex from some diseased organ. For example, it may be the result of an inflamed appendix or gall bladder. Poisons liberated from decomposed food may lead to an irritation of the colon. This is especially common among persons who are careless about their food and live on a poorly balanced diet, particularly if it is deficient in certain vitamins.

Treatment Differs

I cannot overemphasize the importance of distinguishing between mucous colitis and irritable colon. As I have said, the treatment of mucous colitis is different from the treatment of irritable colon. In colitis it is imperative that the colon be emptied and kept clean, and cure can only be hoped for when the underlying cause is discovered and removed.

Fortunately, the treatment and cure of irritable colon are simple and accomplished with less difficulty. Of course diet is important, but of greater importance is the necessity of eliminating all fear, anxiety and other emotional disturbances.

The diet should be simple, nutritious and of such foods as are easily digested. The meals should be prepared so that it is tempting to the eye as well as the palate. Plenty of fresh air, sunlight, adequate hours of rest and relaxation are tonics of great value in the cure of this affliction.

If you are a sufferer from some intestinal disorder and believe you have colitis, I would advise that you consult with your physician. As you see it may not be colitis at all, but really an irritable colon. It is best to seek medical advice before resorting to any remedies. Remember your doctor has been trained in this work. Benefit by his knowledge.

Day by Day

By O. O. MEINTYRE

NEW YORK, Jan. 19.—Thoughts while strolling. That revving Radio City bellies take another look. Always know a western clerk by his "You bet I will." The silky saint Fred Keating, Cab Calaway and his blue show, "Smoky Joe." The old Plaza cabmen are worthy of a Currier and Ives.

One word description of Fifth D'Orsay—sparty. Every hotel seems to have a cocktail hostess. Wonder if other non-smokers always carry away one of those free folders of matches, too. Anyway Peaches Brownings is rosy about the girls. Nobody seems to enjoy life more than that Rialto physician, Dr. Leo Michel.

The suspended animation and eddy of self-consciousness when someone cries "stop thief!" I'm always forgetting to ask somebody who would know just what is genuine. France beginning to belly-ache about poor U. S. wine sales. So you won't pay! Park avenue has become a bedlam.

One of my favorite people—Elmer Opphant, Judith Anderson and Mrs. Lila Bell could pass for twins. And if anyone else tells me I'm a double for Ned Sparks I'll fume. He's a good looking guy. But I'm kind to animals and a whiff at guessing games. May Quirk has the laziest eyes.

How middle-aged Yasha Borunk looks in the orchestra pit in close-up he's a juvenile. But the biggest fooler in a noisy view is Douglas Fairbanks. He's not much bigger than A. C. Blumenthal. Whenever you see a pair of feet and a big cigar, it's likely Dave Stamp.

Most people whose faces become familiar by constant repetition in public prints often discover there is still confusion. Christopher Morley in one of his essays tells of being approached on a train by a young man who asked him to settle a bet. He said "I said you were a bet. Mr. Morley but my friend said no. He said you don't look a bit like the pictures in the book ads."

"It's an ideal bet," replied Morley. "for you are both right."

So far as I know, New York has only one enormous St. Bernard dog with tired looking Wilton Lackaye eyes. I see it walking occasionally with a priest in the Yorkville section, lumbering along lazily and tottally oblivious of the fifty little pouches that always rush out to snarl at an overstaid dog.

My chiropodist from Harlem tells of a customer whose face was vaguely familiar. He finally confided she resembled Ethel Waters. "That's no compliments," she snifted. "I'd rather have anybody's face than hers." There was a coolness for the rest of the visit. Miss Walters is the high yeller in the world. However, conforming to office custom, he asked for her name and address. The card read: "Ethel Waters, No. —Seventh Avenue. And she went har-har-har-ing out to her Lincoln.

A new wrinkle in the Broadway ballroom has an Atlantic City boardwalk tang. Up side streets from the barby after repeal type of dinner and revue places are roller chairs with customary rickshaws. Banners along the side proclaim: "Free ride to Seaside." And now and then a couple is tight enough to be rolled away.

The old Astor theater has for years specialized in stupendous signs since it went cinema. It is now exploiting the biggest single starring splash ever seen along the street. The entire front is blaring in a rainbow jet—G-A-R-B-O in shimmering semi-circle. Greta's first name no longer matters. She has, in the cinema world, taken her place with Duke and Bernhardt. Or at least so Hollywood thinks.

The novelist Louis Joseph Vance had for many years fallen to sleep over his after dinner cigar, especially after he had dined well. Three confessions were started in one apartment where he lived and all his carpets and furniture were seared with scorching spots. The late Arnold Daly, who died in a similar holocaust, did the same thing for years. A further coincidence is that both Vance and Daly were among few Americans to wear monocles.

New York lives with blinds up. Back home every home had a darkened room. In our house it was the parlor, which was never opened save Christmas day and when the sick-hatted traveling opician made his yearly call to fit grandma's spectacles.

The Stars Say:

Saturday, Jan. 20

A lively and interesting day is presented from the dominant planetary way. The conjunction of Sol and Mercury will be found particularly enlightening and stimulating, not only in business channels but may have potent influence on all pertaining to writings, publishing, promotion or other intellectual activities. Employment is likewise propitiously aspected, but in all other affairs there may be need for caution and discretion.

Those whose birthday it is are under favorable auspices for a lively and prosperous year, especially if they be engaged in literary or intellectual vocations. Publication, promotion, advertising as well as business should flourish. Employment is under fortunate auspices for favors, preferment or minor advancement. In other affairs there may be need for wise decisions and precaution.

A child born on this day should be lively, versatile and should make a particular success in writing or other intellectual pursuits.

Notable nativity: Josef Hoffman, musician.

A Review of the Day's News.

By Arthur Brisbane

AT Stratford, Westmoreland county, Va., on Jan. 19, 129 years ago, was born Robert Edward Lee, son of General Henry Lee, and Anne Carter.

He graduated at the head of his class in West Point, 165 years ago, and led the armies of the south in the Civil war. He was a man of admirable character, and of true military genius. His memory and his birthday are honored today.

CARLOS MENDIETA, new president of Cuba, is the fifth president within the last six months. Sixty years old, Mendieta succeeds the youthful Carlos Hevia, who started his presidential term last Monday, and did not last long. Various revolutions in Cuba have been largely the work of young men, including students, enthusiastic promoters of a "youth" movement.

But to keep a government going, after youth establishes it, experience appears to be needed. The new president, Mendieta, has been battling Cuban politics for 40 years.

MRS. FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT says war is "utter futility and deadly stupidity." In her opinion "anyone who thinks must think of the next war as he would of suicide. But most people don't think."

Mrs. Roosevelt's observation on thinking is even more important than her condemnation of war. If people really did think, that would settle war questions.

HOWEVER, to call war stupid and futile, two good adjectives, does not answer the question: How will you see the racial problems of the earth, if science conquers disease, prolongs life, produces unlimited food? We might begin to worry about population, without the plague, war and famine that have regulated population hitherto. You ask yourself:

"When we have 80,000 million human beings on earth, instead of fewer than 2,000,000,000, 15,000,000,000 Mongolians, 13,000,000,000 Blacks, and 20,000,000,000 whites, how will you prevent race wars?"

FRIENDS C. E.

Members of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Friends church are to take part in a program to be given Monday evening at a Christian Endeavor rally at Alliance.

The local society will present a play, "I Don't Remember" under the direction of Miss Catherine Haviland. Those taking part in the play are: Robert Kimes, Melissa Votaw, Ralph Walker, Martha Wernet and Gordon Allen.

Miss Josephine Cobbs will sing a solo as an additional feature of the program. She will be accompanied by Miss Dorothea Allen.

N. E. L. CLASS

Miss Martha Wernet and Miss Melissa Votaw were associate hostesses to the members of the N. E. L. class of the First Friends church, taught by Mrs. Henry Wolfgang. Thursday evening at Miss Wernet's home, North Lincoln ave.

This class supports an orphan in India and a letter was read from a missionary in that country telling of conditions there.

A program was arranged for a party which the class will hold in the near future. Lunch was served by the hostesses.

CAMPFIRE GIRLS

Meeting Thursday evening at the home of Barbara Williams, Cleveland st., members of the junior group of the Wanda Hsa Nella Campfire girls planned a hike for Saturday. The girls will meet at 10 a. m. at Memorial building and go from there.

The girls started to work on a count book. Refreshments were served. The meeting next week will be with Mary Jane Britt, Woodland ave.

AT ENDRES HOME

Mrs. George Endres and Mrs. Andrew Markovitch were associate hostesses at a benefit card party Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Endres, near the Lisbon rd. Prizes offered were awarded to Mrs. Clarence Mullinger for "500" and Mrs. Edwin Deagan for bridge. Mrs. Alex McLaughlin won the guest prize. Lunch was served.

This is one of a series of benefit parties being given for St. Paul's Catholic church.

ELLSWORTH AVENUE CLUB

An informal social time with needlework a diversion occupied the hours when members of the Ellsworth Avenue club were guests of Mrs. Charles Coy Thursday afternoon at her home, Ellsworth rd.

A meeting in two weeks will be with Mrs. W. E. Fawcett, Ellsworth rd.

SUNSHINE CLUB

Needlework interested the women at a meeting of the Sunshine club Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. B. Moore, West Seventh st. The hostess served lunch.

SEVEN CONVICTS FLEE IN KANSAS

Scale Walls of Penitentiary Under Fire of Guards

Brady was wounded critically in an attempt to escape capture.

Of those who escaped in the Memorial day break, only Ed Davis remains at large.

The Memorial day escape was followed by a reign of terror throughout the southwest in which a trail of murder, kidnappings, and robberies were left.

Death had ended the careers of two of those who participated in the Memorial day break. Wilbur Underhill, desperado, was captured at Shawnee, Okla., Dec. 29 and died a week later in prison of wounds received as he fled from officers' fire.

Kenneth Conn, the other, was slain in a bank holdup.

Harvey Bailey, a big name in southwest crime records and one of the leaders in the escape, is in federal prison at Leavenworth, serving a life sentence as one of the kidnappers of Charles F. Urschel, millionaire Oklahoma oil man.

Others who escaped but who have been captured and returned to cells are Lewis Bechtel, Billie Woods, and Frank Sawyer and Clifford Doppson, and Alvie Payton.

Scrip Not Money, Ohio Ruling Says

COLUMBUS, Jan. 19.—Attorney General John W. Bricker today ruled that scrip is not money.

In an opinion asked by Emory P. Smith, prosecuting attorney of Scioto county, the attorney general decreed that the superintendent of the county home cannot accept Portsmouth scrip in payment of surplus crops of the home.

Residence of Portsmouth had offered the superintendent scrip in payment of the crops.

In another opinion, Bricker held that damages suffered by persons or property as the result of negligence on the part of a city employee, while operating his own automobile on city business, subject the city to damages suits.

The opinion, given to the state bureau of accounting, was made in connection with a law recently passed by the legislature giving private persons the right to sue for damages from injuries to persons or property as the result of negligence on the part of municipal employees. Previously, a person injured, for instance, by a city fire truck had no right under state law to sue a city.

Four Missionaries Unharmed In Clash Near Kutien, China

(By Associated Press)

FOOCHOW, China, Jan. 19.—Four American missionaries, isolated near Kutien as a result of sharp fighting in the region, were reported today to have come through the experience unharmed.

They are the Rev. W. S. Bissonette, of Canton, Ohio; Dr. and Mrs. H. N. Brester, of Xenia, Ohio; and Miss Martha Graf, of Cincinnati.

The whereabouts of two other members of the mission, the Rev. and Mrs. C. M. L. Sites of Washington, D. C., was unknown. Little uneasiness was felt, however. They were on an evangelistic tour when fighting broke out.

The group, missionaries of the American Methodist Episcopal church, went through a heavy airplane bombing during an attack of nationalist government forces on Pukien Province rebels, but escaped uninjured.

Ask Rejection of Insull's Appeal

ATHENS, Jan. 19.—Two members of the Greek Council of State recommended today that the council reject Samuel Insull's appeal from an interior ministry ruling that he must leave Greece by Jan. 31.

The two members of the nine-member council, Greece's highest court of appeals, who thus moved to end Insull's hope of further avoiding extradition to the United States by remaining in Greece, were Theodore Angelopoulos and M. Happorteur.

Insull was not in the courtroom when the case was taken up, remaining in bed at the advice of his physician.

The couple, Mr. and Mrs. John Mann, said they gave two bank passbooks representing deposits of $6,667 to E. Greenbaum for the lots.

DR. WYNEKOOP TRIAL HALTED

Defendant's Physical Condition Is Basis of Postponement

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—The murder trial of Dr. Alice Lindsay Wynkoop was postponed today until 10 a. m. Monday because of the 62-year-old defendant's physical condition.

Defense attorneys announced that Dr. Wynkoop's condition was grave and that she had spent a bad night, aggravated by nausea. Her pulse was given as 100 and her temperature as 99.6.
Dr. Earle Gray, a heart specialist, warned that the woman's condition was such that her life was in constant danger. He said a stroke might come at any time.

Looking extremely tired and her face an ashen gray, the aged defendant was wheeled into court a few minutes before the trial was scheduled to get under way, but she was soon wheeled out again.
After a conference of principals for half an hour in the judge's chambers it was announced that the trial would be postponed until Monday.

A conference of members of the Wynkoop family and relatives was called in the judge David's chambers, and the judge announced he would appoint physician to determine whether Dr. Alice was sufficiently strong to survive the ordeal of the remainder of the trial.
Two physicians, Drs. Earle Gray and Chauncey Mayer examined her last night and reported her condition was "very perilous."

Defense Attorney W. W. Smith said he refused to take the responsibility of keeping his client on trial. "Can you blame me?" he asked. "She may die of a stroke at any moment."
Assistant State's Attorney Charles S. Dougherty would not concur with Smith in asking the postponement of the trial. In discussing the matter with Judge David, he said, "As I understand it this woman may live for ten years, or she may drop dead in 10 minutes."
The judge appointed Dr. Arthur Byfield, heart specialist, and Dr. Francis McNally to examine Dr. Wynkoop this afternoon and make a report to the court.

On that report, the judge will decide whether the trial shall continue.
Dr. Wynkoop suffered severe momentary heart attacks during the trial in most instances remedied in a few minutes by stimulants.

Her weakness today recalled the elderly woman physician's statement at the time of her arrest that, "It doesn't matter what happens to me; I won't live long, anyway."

Board Must Reopen Mill Rock School
LISBON, Jan. 19.—The board of education of Middleton township school district will now have to reopen Millrock school, which was closed last August. Children were transported to another school when the fall term opened.

Edna Mariatt filed a mandamus action against the board, which was recently heard by Judge W. F. Lones, who has awarded a peremptory writ of mandamus against the school board. A judgment for the costs has also been entered against the board.
The court held that the code provides that when 12 children of school age are within an established school district, the school shall remain operative. It was contended by the board of education that the school was closed on account of lack of finances, but children attending the Millrock school were being transported to the Rogers school.

OHIO ORDERED TO REDUCE CWA

Federal Administrator's Ruling Brings Total Down to 200,000

thoroughly vicious dose system."
The sudden contraction in civil works activities was expected to add speed to a request President Roosevelt will send to Capitol Hill shortly for an additional $1,116,000,000 for the federal recovery units. Funds would be allotted from this to carry on civil works until May 1. Indications were given at CWA headquarters that had immediate retrenchments not been made existing funds might have been exhausted within little more than another week.

Effective today, Harry L. Hopkins, the administrator, ordered all state administrators to cut all 30-hour work-weeks to 24 in cities of 2,500 and over, and to reduce these hours in smaller communities to 15 a week.

He cancelled directions issued last Monday whereby about 500,000 jobs would have been given through cutting in half all 30-hour weeks in smaller communities and rural sections and hiring an equal number of men on 15-hour weeks.

Additional orders are expected to be made public, whereby, under a ruling by comptroller General McCarr, all civil works administration employees having jobs similar to regular government positions would suffer the regular 15 per cent federal pay cut. The number of employees thus affected would be comparatively small.
Further ramifications of Hopkins' order were that clerical, supervisory and professional workers who heretofore have been working 40-hour weeks would have their pay-time cut to 30 hours. The order was not expected to effect the administrative workers in the offices of state administrators.

Mistrial Refused In Bank Hearings

CLEVELAND, Jan. 19.—After a judge's refusal of defense counsel's demand for a declaration of mistrial, the state continued presenting its testimony in the Standard Trust bank trial today, centering attention on two loans of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.
The Brotherhood's grand chief engineer, Alvanley Johnston, and its secretary-treasurer, James H. Cassell, former directors of the bank, and C. Sterling Smith, former president of the new closed institution, were charged with misapplication of the bank's funds and false entry.
The loans in question were made by the Empire Trust company of New York to the Brotherhood one for $300,000 on Sept. 10, 1930, and the other for $250,000 on Feb. 7, 1931.

Spectators, Coach Injured In Clash After Cage Battle

(By Associated Press)
CLEVELAND, Jan. 19.—The meeting of West Technical and Central high schools' basketball teams was taken so seriously by several hundred spectators that many of them were suffering bruises today and Coach Frank Civiletto of Central has a badly cut left index finger. There was only a minute to play and Central was leading, 25 to 7. West Tech had made only a foul shot during the whole second half. Civiletto sent James Hamilton in to substitute at guard. Time was taken out for the substitution, but before the officials could start the play again some over-energetic West Tech player gave Hamilton a push. Into a huddle went the officials, and out of the scene went one West Tech player and Hamilton. At this moment spectators recalled today the Tech team and many of its rooters moved ominously in the general direction of the Central team and its supporters. They mingled. During the brief moments which followed there was much tramping about and much pushing and in some manner as yet undetermined, Civiletto's left index finger nearly was severed. By the time a police squad arrived to aid the lone officer at the game, the contest had been finished and most of the spectators had gone home.

Strengthened Alliance Squad Hopes For Win Over Brownmen

BIG TEN RIVALS TANGLE IN CAGE BATTLE TONIGHT

Salem Big Favorite to Tounce Aviators in League Inaugural

LARGE CROWD WILL WITNESS CONTEST

Invaders Improve After Bad Start; May Put Up Hard Fight

Victorious in but two games in ten starts, an improved Alliance High quintet nevertheless looms as a serious threat to Salem High's hopes for the Big Ten league basketball championship when the two old rivals collide on the Quakers' home court tonight.

Aviators Improve
It has been many years since an Alliance varsity has experienced such disaster as the 1934 machine has gone through but, in contests played within the last two weeks, the Aviators have shown marked improvement and may prove a tough adversary for the unbeaten Quaker Squad.

The battle, incidentally, marks the opening of the 1934 N. E. C. B. G. Ten campaign for Herbert Brown's side against the Aviators will be seeking their seventh consecutive triumph. A decisive win for the Brownmen will get them off to a good start in their drive for the league crown.

Figuratively speaking, everything points towards an easy Salem win, triumph but pre-game facts, speaking more definitely, assure a hard-fought duel for Alliance has seldom proven an easy victim for the Quakers in any form of sport.

Traditional rivalry between the two old foes is one of the elements upon which fans base their predictions for an interesting struggle.

Visiting Lineup Uncertain
Alliance' mentor, Leland Whitson, who produced a Big Ten championship team a year ago, is as yet undecided on their starting lineup because of uncertainty of who will get the call at right forward. It's between Bertram and Zupanic for this job with the latter, who has been starting most games this season, favored for the assignment.

Gray, lanky 6 ft. 4 in. center, will be at the pivot to oppose Wayne Sidingier while Yoder and Seufels will be stationed at guard. Yoder is proving the club's most reliable scorer and is also playing a brilliant defensive game. Gray's height enables the Aviators to control the tip-off in practically all games the team enters and this is a big advantage that can't be overlooked in tonight's fray.

Invaders Hope For Win
Amazons hoping to finish the season with more wins than defeats in spite of their inauspicious beginning, this crew of Aviators will come to Salem pointing for a victory, not to hold the powerful Quaker team to a low score. And it's a sportsman adage that a team with its back against the wall always fights harder than the top-heavy aggression so, if the Brownmen figure the invaders as an easy opponent, they may find themselves on the short end of the score for the first time this season.

The varsity clash will be the principal bit of entertainment on an attractive three-game program. Two Salem High girls' teams will collide in the first prelude at 6:30 while reserve squads of Salem and Alliance will tangle at 7:30.

Hermine Linder, captain, Gertrude Bodendorfer, Helen Papesch, Sheila Kuniewicz, Caroline Bush and Anna Ruth Vincent will compose a team that will battle it out with another sextet consisting of Letty Fisher, captain, Hazel Anderson, "Jo" Adams, Betty Walker, Minnie Schmidt and Edna Lesch.

Here are records of Salem-Alliance High teams who collide here tonight:

Salem	Opponents
40	26-Wellsville.
21	17-Sebring.
40	11-Lisbon.
27	22-Alumet.
30	23-Y. Chaney.
28	22-E. Liverpool.

Scored 195 points to 129 by opponents. Won 6 last 9.

Alliance	Opponents
20	27-Louisville.
17	14-Minerva.
17	26-Akron Garfield.
18	14-Cuyahoga Falls.
19	24-Akron North.
19	22-Steubenville.
20	24-Massillon.
14	24-Niles.
13	48-Canton.
12	21-Dover.

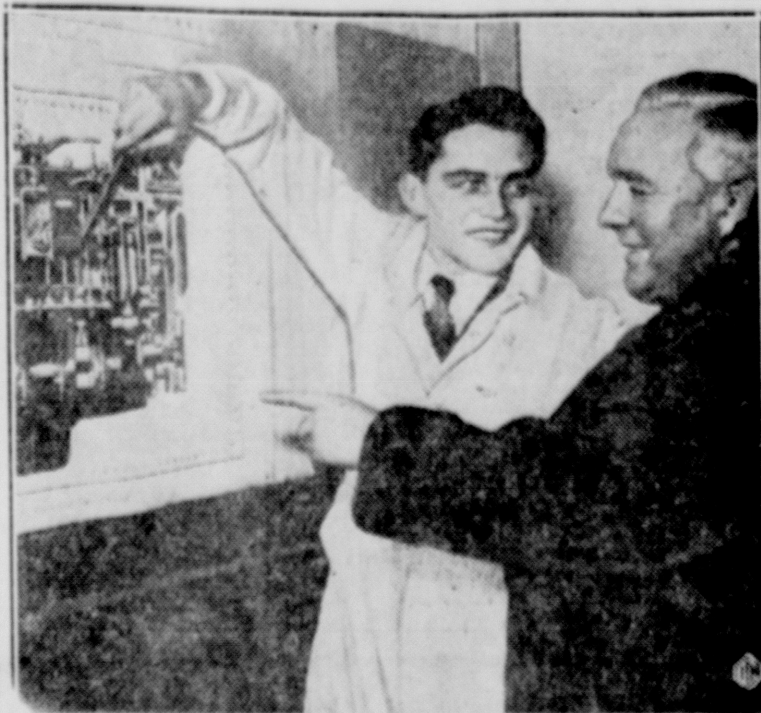

Won two games last night, scored 87 points to 243 by opponents.

Gar Wood's Canadian Challenger

The latest challenge to the speed boat supremacy of Gar Wood, America's famous "Silver Fox," comes from J. R. Ardiel, Canadian youth, who is shown at Windsor, Can., as he explained features of his motor to James S. Allen, secretary of the Canadian Power Boat Association, which has challenged Wood to race for the Harnsworth Trophy which the American racer has defended for years.

Kelker, Vanaman Still Top Scorers in District Loops

Dover Star Far in Front in Big Ten; Massillon Cager Is Second

Though "Doc" Kelker, Dover high school's huge Negro athlete will play his last games on the basketball court this week for the Crimson, he is likely to retain the leadership in the individual scoring race of the Northeastern Ohio Big Ten high school league for three more weeks.

Barred from further competition in any high school sport by his age, Kelker will conclude a dazzling career on the home court Saturday night in a game against Youngstown Cheney. He will engage in his final league game the preceding night at Wooster. Kelker has reached the age of 20 years—the limit for high school boys in Ohio.

Leads With 93 Points

"Doc" Kelker has scored 36 field goals and 22 free throws for a total of 93 points in eight games to lead the pack.

With Kelker stepping out of the picture this week, John Chovaneck, young Massillon star, "Jumping Joe" Williams of Barberton and Wayne Sidingier of Salem, appear to be the best bets to win the individual scoring honor of the loop.

Those scoring 20 or more points follow:

SEATTLE—Mrs. Evelyn Pointer

was bonded for one cent in superior court, and Superior Judge John A. Prater furnished the penny. Her brother, George Butler, who is 18, wanted to join the army, but he needed a legal guardian to consent. The appointment of Mrs. Pointer was agreed upon by the government and the guardianship papers drawn up. The bond was then arranged.

"ROY RIEGELS" BASKET WINS FOR MULLINS

Greenisen, Smith Star,
Tosses Goal For Foe
In 24-22 Contest

Dribbling down the court on a neat play, Clifford "Skippy" Greenisen, Smith Creamery star forward, zoomed the ball through the hoop for what proved the winning basket for the Mullins Foremen's club in a Class A league battle at the Memorial gym Thursday night.

For Greenisen, unexpectedly getting the baskets mixed, had pulled a "Roy Riegels," throwing the leather through the foe's hoop and his team lost the decision by just those two points, 24-22, after a thrilling fray.

Orphans Triumph

A sensational fourth-quarter spurt netted the Orphans a 36-33 win over the Trades Class after the latter lads had held a slight lead all the way. Nedelka tallied 15 points for the victors while Harry Vogel and M. Linder starred for the losers.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 19.—Alfredo de Oro, 71-year-old New York billiards star, goes into the third quarter of the national three-cushion championship tournament today with a half-game lead over his nearest rival, Kinsey Matsuyama, also of New York.

Brilliant shooting in the last two frames saved the Japanese from defeat last night. Matsuyama was trailing Arthur Woods, until the 50th inning. Then he shot two frames of six each to run out the game, 50 to 45. The 51st inn made it the shortest match yet played.

De Oro, eastern sectional champion, has won four straight games; Matsuyama has taken four and lost one.

De Oro won the longest game of the tourney by a single point yesterday, defeating Earl Loochabaugh, of Chicago, 50 to 49 in 74 innings. In the day's other match Charles McCourt, of Cleveland, bested Robert D. Harper, of Denver, 50 to 47 in 65 frames.

AKRON TACKLES MOUNT TONIGHT

Ohio Northern Star Hurt
In Tilt; Important
Games Scheduled

(By Associated Press)

Titles hang in the balance in Ohio college basketball games this week-end, with a score of contests on tap.

Two of the four undefeated teams in Ohio conference should furnish the fireworks tonight. Akron with four successive wins, travels to Alliance to play Mount Union.

Other Ohio conference clashes put Capital against Hiram, Heidelberg against Marietta, and Bowling Green against Northern. The Ada team had another bad luck break last night when forward Haidig, West, Greenwach, was injured. His right arm was pulled from its socket.

Wilmington meets Defiance tonight in a northwest Ohio contest. Wilmington won the title last year and figures on repeating.

In non-league games, Rio Grande plays a Lutheran church quintet at Springfield, and Chattanooga invades Cincinnati to play Xavier.

On Saturday night, Ohio State university will find out just how serious are its chances of remaining near the top of the Big 10. The Buckeyes travel to Minnesota for the encounter, stopping off Monday at Chicago for a go at Northwestern.

The Buckeye Athletic association race claims a major share of the interest Saturday. The league leading Ohio Wesleyan quintet invades Cincinnati, and the Ohio university Bobcats travel to Springfield for a clash with Wittenberg.

A northwestern Ohio conference contest brings Wilmington against Findlay, also undefeated in league play.

The Ohio conference schedule finds capital at Kent, Wooster at Oberlin, Heidelberg at Muskingum and Otterbein at Ashland.

CHAPTER FIFTY-THREE

The telephone rang constantly. Patricia had brought into the hotel efficient secretaries in addition to her usual one. A fleet of cars was constantly at his disposal. Will there was work for her hands to do. Patricia was at the telephone. Only she could give certain of the troubling news. No, she and Julian could not stay before the Bronxville Women's Club; they appreciated being asked. No, she could not take another newspaper column. No, she could not just the same. No, Mr. Haverholt never furnished free use of his book, sorry. Nor did she intend to play cards. She preferred them to playing cards. The messages were delivered a hundred a day; they must be tossed in wastebaskets, or promptly Congratulatory messages arrived in every like voices out of nowhere. Some of them were for Julian but Patricia piled up a growing stack. A letter from a rancher in Wyoming wired an offer of his hand and promised upon acceptance to send the broad fare. A bridge teacher in Oklahoma was sure that she could improve Miss Haverholt's game and would part with her system upon payment of a neat five hundred dollars. An assiduous sent Miss Haverholt a complicated chart which predicted that Patricia's stars were lucky. It appeared that she must always be, that her life would be one and sweet song. At that the girl smiled rather wryly.

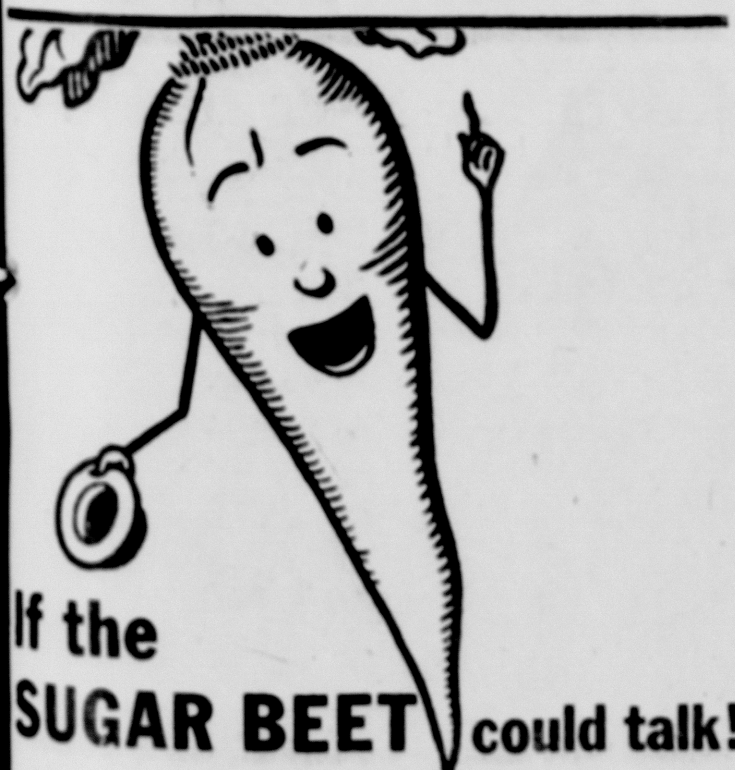

Patricia stepped from limousine to curb, prepared to make a run for it.

The city was divided. New York entered lustily into the fight. Patricia was the winning system? The Haverholt or the Blair? There were those who swore by Reuben's conventions, the most conservative element always. Julian glanced these folk "the lackluster, the dullards and the fools." The most ardent partisans followed Julian. He made fantastic claims for him, they bet on him at odds of ten to one. They hailed him as a genius—and Julian heartily agreed they were right. Patricia felt, these days, that she was moving through some crazy maze. At the end of it was the bridge match. All thoughts, all conversations led eventually to that. She saw newspaper reporters and representatives of magazines. She gave her impressions on the young man's question of which she was a better impression on prohibition. Her impressions as opposed to contract bridge. There was so much to do, so much time to do it in. The days were rushing by. The bridge marathon, whose fame had come from coast to coast, was now a week off, was to begin three days off, was to begin tomorrow night. Everything had been arranged. The hotel had been chosen. Julian had chosen it from his own applicants, the Beveridge. Patricia Avenue's newest and smartest hotel. There was to be an entire floor, large enough to accommodate five hundred of the many thousands who clamored for the great invitation cards. Patricia was stunned when she read the extent of the arrangements to furnish the waiting public with every word of news. An entire suite had been given over to newspaper men, who were to report the play, hand by hand. Certain newspapers had put in their own telegraph wires, other depended on telephones, and there were a row of them upon a row of desks. A special telegraph office had been installed, and the instruments were ready to flash the results to Kokomo, to Detroit, to San Francisco. The radio men had installed a microphone. The news-reel camera men had been allowed to set up their cameras in the lobby of the Beveridge.

If the SUGAR BEET could talk!

If the sugar beet could talk it would say something like this:—Madam—the farmers plant me—cultivate me—guard me—harvest me—fight the elements for me—haul me to the world's foremost refineries just so that you may have the best sugar in the world. These same farmers, Madam, invest their savings in land—in buildings—in farm equipment—in upkeep—in taxes—in agricultural education in an effort to make a decent living. Won't you therefore buy and use Beet Sugar Made in Ohio, Indiana or Michigan in preference to all others? For Beet Sugar is the world's best sugar for every household purpose. It has no superior. Make this agreement with yourself—"No matter what else I do, I'll always buy Beet Sugar Made in Ohio, Indiana or Michigan and tell my friends to do likewise!"

Buy, Use and Boost BEET SUGAR

Ohio, Indiana and Michigan Made Beet Sugar is available in 5-10-25 and 100 lb. sacks. For sale at all grocers. Farmers and Manufacturers Beet Sugar Association, Inc., Mich.

trembling girl, who faced him and drank too. "Too bad," someone said, glancing toward the windows. "Too bad it's raining on your night of victory."

"That won't matter," replied Julian arrogantly and confidently. "We'll have a rain-proof gallery anyhow. I hear the police are calling out reserves."

They laughed, all except Patricia. She leaned back against a marble mantle, white and still. Deep circles ringed her eyes. Except for rouge her face was entirely colorless. She was overwrought to a condition bordering on hysteria.

Burning in her veins was the excitement of physical strain too long endured. Julian regarded her anxiously. "Are you tired, Patricia? Are you nervous?"

"I'm so tired that I can hardly stand, so nervous that I can't stop this shaking. See! Isn't it ridiculous?" The man was worried and feared to let her see his worry. How in this state could she play bridge? With unusual consideration, he fetched her wrap himself wrapped the folds of fur about her, told the others shortly that he and his niece would drive to the hotel alone.

Patricia grew a little calmer, got a firmer grip upon herself as she and Julian drove through the coldly falling rain, secure and snug in the familiar limousine. At least she stopped the shaking. A thousand times she told herself that this was just a game, just the game of bridge that she had known from childhood, the same old game despite its modern trappings, despite the tons of ballyhoo.

Julian said repeatedly: "Do your best, Patricia, that's all you need to do. Your best is good enough for me. It will be far too good for Blair and Sanders."

Apparently he had no fears on his own account. Apparently he was the same old egotist. The rain was pouring now, drumming on the roof. The streets were black and glistening. The windshield wiper whirled. Julian gripped her hand very tightly. He had said his say.

They reached the Beveridge. Patricia stepped from limousine to curb, prepared to make a run for it. She stopped bewildered as flashlights boomed and people shouted. A policeman grabbed her arm, fought with her through the crowd which jammed the sidewalk and surged against the ropes stretched to the entrance of the hotel. Un-

New Island Governor

Maj. Gen. Blanton Winship, replacing Robert H. Gore, of Florida, President Roosevelt named Major General Blanton Winship, of Macon, Ga., to be Governor of Puerto Rico. General Winship is a former Judge Advocate General of the Army and has had wide experience in Puerto Rico and the Philippines.

brellas struck her in the back as people pressing forward sought to shake her hand. "Gosh, we're famous," she heard Julian's voice just behind her. She heard other mingled voices, shouts and cheers. The policeman wedged her through the door.

The splendid lobby of the Beveridge, large as it was, looked to-night like the Long Island station on a summer Saturday, packed to the very walls. A roar went up as the two appeared, the white-haired man and the flushed, bewildered girl.

"There she is!" "That's Patricia Haverholt!" "The man behind her, the white haired gent, is Julian Haverholt. I got fifty bucks on him."

Patricia was nodding, bowing smiling. Was this the game of bridge? No, this was ballyhoo! (To Be Continued)

Too Many Figures

TOLEDO, Jan. 19.—After scratching their heads and using up sheets and sheets of paper in three hours celebrating a jury of six men and six women gave up as hopeless a task of computing interest on $10,000 at 6 per cent for three years, five months and one day.

HAVE'N'T you noticed that your happiest hours occur on days when you feel your best?

Have more of these happy days. You and all your family. Guard health while you have it. Keep on the sunny side of life.

The greatest enemy of health is common constipation. It may cause loss of appetite and energy. Certainly it kills enthusiasm! Yet it can be banished by eating a delicious cereal.

Laboratory tests show Kellogg's All-Bran supplies "bulk" and vitamin B to relieve common constipation. Also iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in All-Bran is much like that in leafy vegetables. How much pleasanter to eat this delicious ready-to-eat cereal than to take potent medicines. Two table-spoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. Chronic cases, with each meal. If not relieved this way, see your doctor. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

So in the case of the Buckeye Savings association against the Commercial Savings Bank and Trust company, they awarded the Buckeye Association judgment of $10,000 "with interest at 6 per cent from July 31, 1933 to Jan. 17, 1934." They had been instructed to write the sum of the interest in the verdict.

HALT BUYING OF CWA MATERIALS

Federal Works Officials
Fear Funds Will Run
Out by Feb. 10

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—Preparing for possible stoppage of the Civil Works program on February 10 because of funds running out, the Federal Works administration
today halted purchase of materials and supplies for use on projects
throughout the country.

The order, issued by Audrey Williams, assistant administrator, on direction of Harry L. Hopkins, represented—it was stated—"a stock taking."

The states were ordered to submit immediately to Washington statements of the amounts they have spent on materials; obligations they have incurred for materials and amounts needed to complete projects.

It was stated at the Civil Works office that payrolls could be met until February 10 on present appropriations but that additional appropriations by congress would be needed to continue the work beyond that time.

President Roosevelt soon will seek such appropriation.

Bullet Proof Vests For Chicago Police

CHICAGO, Jan. 19.—When engaged in tracking down gunmen and criminals in the future Chicago's police will be equipped with bullet proof vests costing $50 apiece.
Commissioner of Police James P.
Allman announced today.

With this move the police department hopes to materially decrease police casualties, which rose to 15 last year, in engagements with law violators.

Although the city is not financially able to buy the vests for all of its 6,000 policemen it is expected enough will be provided to equip
the detail now engaged in hunting escaped convicts under the direction of Captain John Stege.

Fix Laundry Pay

COLUMBUS, Jan. 19.—A code
fixing minimum wages for laundry workers in Ohio has been signed,
but details were not announced
pending a tabulation of the scales agreed upon for women and minors.

Joan Silent On Marriage Rumors

HOLLYWOOD, an 19.—Why
ask Hollywood, is Joan Crawford removing her mansion in Brentwood Heights?
Seeking an answer, the film star having hardly more than smiles for questioners, it was recalled that her divorce from Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., becomes final on May 13.

Asked if there was any likelihood of a romance with Franchot Tone, her leading man, Miss Crawford said time would tell.

The music room has been transformed into a bar-room. The library is altered completely and there is a new swimming pool, tennis courts and kennels for her Scotties.

"Son of a Sailor" Now At State; Wynn's Comedy at Grand Tomorrow

COMEDY prevails in theaters
over the weekend here with Joe E.
Brown's "Son of a Sailor" at the State and "The Chief," starring Ed
Wynn, playing at the Grand.
"Son of a Sailor" will conclude Saturday evening and the Will Rogers and Zasu Pitts picture, "Dr.
Seitch" is scheduled for Sunday and Monday. The Grand's feature will play Saturday and Sunday.

Joe As A Sailor
Jean Muir who played the girl in love with Paul Muni in "The World Changes," Frank McHugh, Johnny Mack Brown, Thelma Todd wearing a black wig over her own lovely hair for some reason or other.
Sheila Terry and Merna Kennedy
are in the Brown picture cast.
Joe E. Brown has a good role in this film—his cast as a dumb guy who can tell the longest and biggest stories about his experiences one could imagine. He especially likes to tell about how the girls all fall for his charms whereupon the fellow sailors want him to prove it —and this is not so easily done as it seems—for Joe.

Quite by accident he wins his laurels—not only personal ones

2,500 Persons Die In Calcutta Quake

CALCUTTA, Jan. 19.—At least 2,500 persons were killed in the Bihar district alone in the terrific earth shocks which shook all India Monday, a government announcement said today.

Apparently the city which suffered most was Muzaffarpur, officials said, where the earthquake dead-now are known to total 600, while it is estimated that several hundred were killed in Monghyr.

Impeding rescue efforts, roads to Muzaffarpur are impassable and in the city indescribable scenes of horror were reported—with wailing mothers searching through the debris and homeless and in some cases, orphaned children wandering about stunned by the catastrophe.

The affected area centered largely in the Bihar district, was described in the official report as pitted with holes spouting mud and water.

during his brief and eventful stay ashore, but saves from alien conspirators the plans of an important aircraft invention. Later he is brought before Admiral Farnworth and expects trouble and all that goes with it, instead the admiral compliments him for having caught a spy and saving the important papers.

Grand's Feature

ED WYNN, called "the silliest man in America" lives up to that name in "The Chief" his latest film. With Wynn are Dorothy Mackall, Charles "Chic" Sale, William Boyd, C. Henry Gordon and Mickey Rooney.

"The Chief" is the story of a simple Bowery
boy of the early nineties, son of a heroic fireman.
Just a great big overgrown boy who lives with his brave mother and works in the parcel room of a department store.

The name of Summers was a glorious name in the years gone by and Henry (Wynn)
years to become famous.

His chance comes when he is made to run for alderman of the district. Henry doesn't want to run, being a shy little fellow but his employers urge him and along with the assistance of Dixie (Miss Mackall) Henry is persuaded.

The ending will surprise you as Ed is capable of springing unusual endings to his stories even in his pictures.

Only One Fails To Pass Notary Test

LISBON, Jan. 19.—Twenty-six out of 27 who took the notary public examination here last Saturday have received passing grades. One woman from East Liverpool failed to obtain the required grade.
There are 17 men and women serving as notaries public in this county, according to Attorneys William H. Vodrey and Joel B. Sharp, the examining board appointed by the court for this purpose.

A New Truss, far superior to anything that has ever been offered those who suffer from rupture. Guaranteed to hold 98% of all cases, regardless of occupation. No hard rubber or metal parts to irritate. Extremely comfortable, efficient and different. This truss does not get its holding power by a fixed pressure, which has proven to irritate and obstruct muscle resistance by a continuous pressure on the muscle tissue, thus blocking the blood supply to these areas where it is essential. This truss derives its holding power by working in direct union with the natural exertion of the abdominal and pelvic muscles. This brings about normal pelvic and abdominal muscle action, thus exercising and strengthening the muscles of the affected region.
